Notes for WESLEY BINKS:

Wesley and Bella moved to the North Coast of NSW in 1906. There is a rich family history regarding their family on the South Coast. The original "Binks' Homestead is in Broughton Village. The first home that Wesley and Bella lived in has been moved into the town of Gerringong and has been very well maintained. The Binks family were a significant family in the area - very involved in church, community life and politics. There is quite a strain of sentimentality amongst them so it is not difficult to glean information.

Wesley and Bella seemed to maintain the strong traditions when they established themselves in Bangalow. In keeping with this, one of the houses at the Bangalow School is called "Binks". Oldtimers in the town still recall the family as respected and committed in their Christian faith.
